We have some post cards containing fine views of the court house, Hon. Church Howe's home at Auburn, and the Peru coal mine, at the postoffice bookstore.

Dade Seid took his wood sawing machine up to Wm. Hawxby's farm Tuesday, sawed 22 cords of wood and got back home the same day. It took them only five and a half hours to saw the wood.

Christian Endeavor Notice

We are requested to give notice that there will be no meeting of the Christian Endeavor at the Christian church until the meetings at the Methodist church are closed.

I desire to correspond with parties wanting to sell river bottom and bluff land, in large and small tracts. Give legal numbers, description, lowest price, etc. Address:
JOHN M. LIVINGSTON,

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Owens and son of Wymore came in to Nemaha Thursday of last week on a visit to their daughter and sister, Mrs. Harry Hoover. Mr. Owens was a former resident of this vicinity, leaving here in 1883.

Rev. G. W. Ayers moved into the new parsonage Saturday. The Methodist people feel proud of the new home for their pastor. It is one of the best built houses in the county and makes a good comfortable home for the minister.

Dell Austin of Murdock, Nebr., lost his five-year-old son Friday of last week. The little fellow got hold of a box containing some opium tablets and took two of them, telling his sister what he had done. He was taken to a physician's office and everything possible done but the child only lived about three hours after taking the tablets. Mr. Austin is a brother of Mrs. Florence Jarvis of Nemaha.

The second week of our

January Clearing Sale

will still show a Feast of Bargains in Winter Supplies of all descriptions.

The prices we make are extremely low in comparison with the qualities of the goods we offer.

All parties owing me are requested to call and settle their accounts before Jan 1, as I need the moneey. W. H. BARKER.

Hon. V. P. Peabody has been confined to the house for a week with a lame back. He is hardly able to walk across the room much of the time. He has a good appetite but declares he isn't playing sick just to get rid of shoveling snow.

Mrs. E. Weisenrider of Broken Bow came to Nemaha Tuesday and is the guest of Mrs. F. L. Woodward for a few days. Mrs. Weisenrider lived in Aspinwall for over thirty years, moving from there to Broken Bow about fifteen years ago.

Lost—Mrs. W. T. Russell lost a ladies purse, brown in color, Sunday morning, on her way to Nemaha. The purse had about $1 in change in it which finder can keep if purse is returned. As it was a Christmas present she thinks a great deal of it.

C. F. Zook has gone into the fine chicken business. He has a few fine buff cochins, and this week received five pullets and a cockerel from parties at Keswick, Iowa, the six costing him $9 and $2.65 express. He is getting ready to take some premiums at the poultry show.

Free

During the month of January we will send The Advertiser free to many who are not at present subscribers. At the end of the month it will be stopped unless ordered continued. No charge will be made for the month's papers.

Geo. Rhineshardt donated a two-bushel sack of oats to Rural Carrier Sanders Monday. This is a gift that is certainly appreciated. If more of the patrons would remember that rural carriers' horses have to be fed, and donate a few bushels of oats or corn occasionally it would help out these servants of the people wonderfully. Try it and see the glad smile that will come over their faces.

To those that have good dogs, keep them at home, for it is my intention to shoot all dogs prowling around my sheep.

G. F. RIDER.

Ferry at St. Deroin

The Missouri river is open at St. Deroin and the ferry is prepared to cross at any time. Good safe ferry.

HENRY LEMON, Prop.

J. F. Ebnother saw something that looked a little strange in a straw stack recently, and upon investizating found the skin of a large sow he had missed for several days. Some one had killed and skinned the sow and left the hide in the strawstack. Mr. Ebnother would like to get a clue to the fellow that did it.

Rev. G. W. Ayers and Rev. W. H. Prescott called on the business men of Nemaha Monday and requested them to close their places of business at 7:30 p. m. during the continuance of the revival meetings. The merchants all agreed to do this. They have the thanks of the christian people for their courtesy.

The engine at the elevator broke down Monday afternoon, when the corn was coming in, and a number of farmers had to leave their wagons loaded with corn and go home. Earle Gilbert got Ed Seid and Ben Baldwin and the three worked until four o'clock the next morning to get the engine to running again, and then it took till noon to get the corn unloaded that was in waiting from the previous day.
